

Mind Empowered

Illuminating Minds, Transforming Lives

Who are we?

Mind empowered is a social NGO creating mental health awareness amongst the youth, enabling inclusive education for children with disabilities and empowering women.

What we do?

ME has devised a holistic empowerment program to focus on Psychological and Social Empowerment of youth and women of all ages.

Our Vision Empowering Individuals to navigate life with Emotional Resilience.

"Starlet hackathon was such a nice experience and exposure to new people. Thank you Mind Empowered for bringing up this opportunity to all the women and gender minority."

Starlet Hackathon

A hackathon for Women and Other Gender Minorities

Empowering Women & Gender Minorities in Tech

A dynamic innovation challenge designed to foster collaboration and highlight the brilliance of technologists.

We're here to create a supportive space where participants can connect, grow, and gain confidence.

✦ What to Expect?

- A welcoming environment for learning, networking, and teamwork.
- Encouragement to step beyond comfort zones and embrace new challenges.
- An event powered entirely by women—from banners to food—championing women entrepreneurs, housewives and creators.

Join us in shaping a future where innovation knows no boundaries!

Our Mission
Championing the cause of mental health through Awareness, Education, Advocacy and creating an empathetic community.

Previous Editions

- In the last three editions, we've welcomed 200+ participants from over 15 colleges, building a thriving community of innovators.
- All editions have proudly partnered with WiCyS (Women in CyberSecurity), strengthening our mission to empower women and gender minorities in tech.

This Year's Theme:

Ekatmata : Embracing Diversity

We're focusing on innovations that empower individuals with disabilities and have unique needs.

Participants will develop projects that break barriers, enhance accessibility, and create a more inclusive world through technology

What is the event ?

The ultimate INNOVATION MARATHON where ideas meet execution and strangers become teammates. Whether you're a seasoned coder or just stepping into the world of tech, this event is built for everyone — solo innovators, dynamic duos, and full-fledged teams!

How it works:

👉 Flying Solo? No worries! You'll have the chance to meet fellow solo participants and form your dream team at the event.

💡 Have a team but no idea? We've got you covered! Choose from our curated problem statements across tech, sustainability, social impact, AI, and more.

🔧 Have both a team and an idea? Great! Bring it to life in a creative, collaborative environment.

This is more than just a hackathon — it's a launchpad for ideas, collaboration, and community-building.
